EXHIBITION RULES AND REGULATIONS

The event organizers reserve the right to refuse participation if we feel the applicant is not in compliance with the mission of this Health Fair. This is a family-friendly event. All exhibitors must submit in advance the intention of their participation, as well as the nature of any goods or services they will be offering to attendees.

Exhibitors will have access to the exhibition hall for setup from 8 AM until 9:30 AM. The doors will open to the public at 10 AM. The expo floors need to be clean and clear of all items by 5:30 PM.

No food of any kind may be sold or given away at this event.

The location of the exhibitor's table will be predetermined by the Health Fair team and is not subject to change at the time of the Health Fair.

No pets will be permitted on the premises other than service animals.

Items, products and/or materials that are for sale must have a direct relationship to the program content and be viewed as complementary to the educational purpose of the program.

Items for sale may be displayed and sales transacted only within the designated meeting space.

Any exhibitor selling products or services onsite must provide a certificate of insurance naming Connect Media Group and Southwestern/Great American, Inc. as an additional insured.

Sales must be conducted by a member of the program sponsor or a vendor associated with the program. Sales are limited to program participants only.
